THE FUTURE ON A 4'x8' BOARD

SUPER "O"

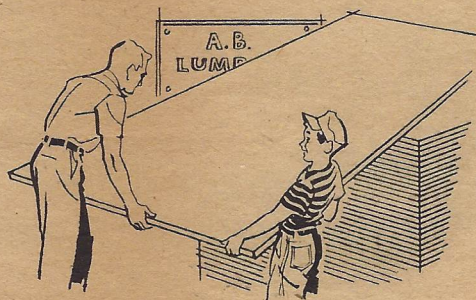

HOW A TWO TRAIN OPERATION WORKS FOR "O27" . . . "O" . . . SUPER "O" . . . HO

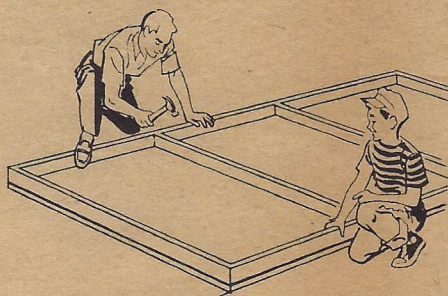

These two pages illustrate the various stages in developing a layout from a basic oval to a complete two train operation.

By insulating one loop from the other and sectionalizing portions of the loop by means of insulating pins or clips, you are able to perform various realistic railroading operations. Here are two—(1) To interchange outer and inner trains, stop outer train in Section D, run inner train onto outer loop and bring outer train onto inner loop . . . (2) To permit outer train to run through passing siding and back onto outer loop, hold inner train in Section B.

Visit your lumber yard—select the 4' x 8' board of your choice. Buy lumber for framing and horses.

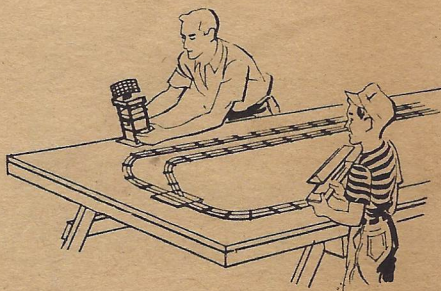

Frame the board. This gives the board stability and allows for easy wiring on the underside.

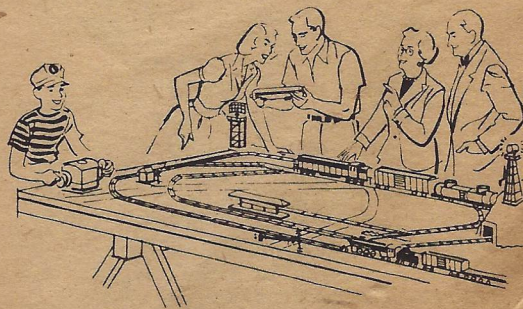

Make your own horses or purchase foldaway legs. (Be sure the child's height is considered.)

Select your track plan. Proceed to lay out track and wire to controls and transformer.

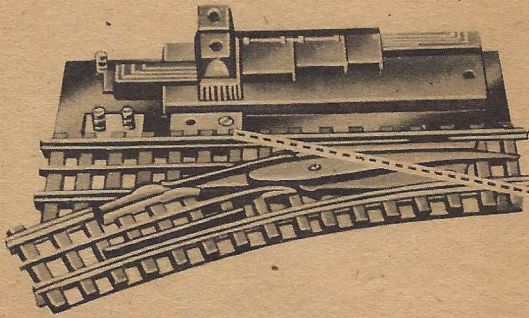

Screw down track, position and wire accessories, landscape with Lionel's No. 920 Scenic Display Kit.

The work is done. Now's the time to enjoy your new Lionel two train operation . . . your own railroad empire.

*Note SUPER "O" switch will provide a 30° turnout, making it possible to obtain parallel tracks with a center-to-center distance of only 4½ inches.

No. 36 Operating Car Remote Control Set—Blades are inserted into any straight track (as shown). Will operate all cars equipped with sliding shoes. Also uncouples electro-magnetic couplers.

No. 31 Curved Track—16 ties, 9" long.

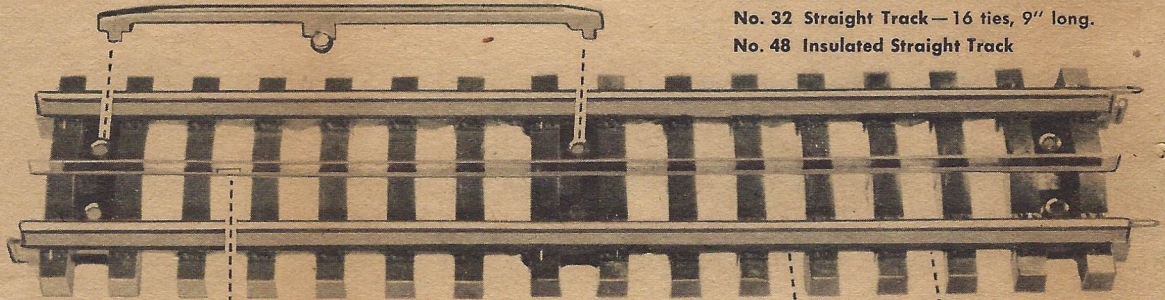

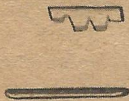

No. 49 Insulated Curved Track

No. 32 Straight Track—16 ties, 9" long.

No. 62 Power Lockon—Inserted into slot of center rail as shown.

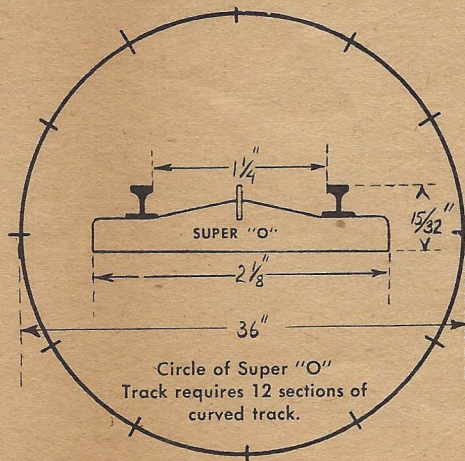

No. 61 Ground Lockon—Attaches to outer rail as shown.

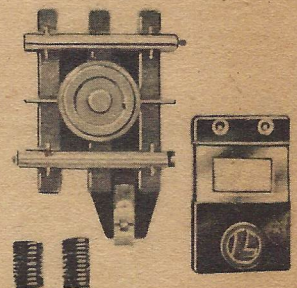

No. 120 90° Crossing

No. 130 60° Crossing

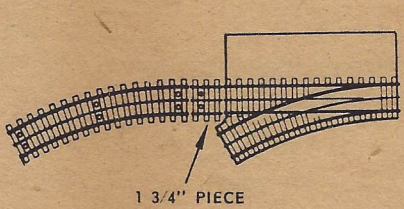

Circle of Super "O" Track requires 12 sections of curved track.

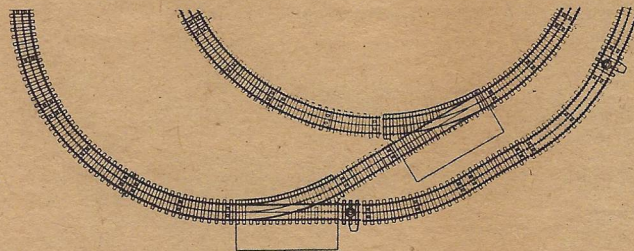

No. 37 Uncoupling Track Set—Includes uncoupling unit, No. 90 Controller. Uncouples cars equipped with magnetic couplers; operates cars with plunger-activated mechanism.

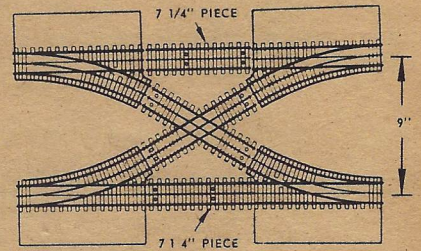

AND HOW IT WORKS

To provide clearance for the overhang of long locomotives, it is recommended that a No. 34 Half Straight Track or a 1 3/4" piece of track be inserted as shown above.

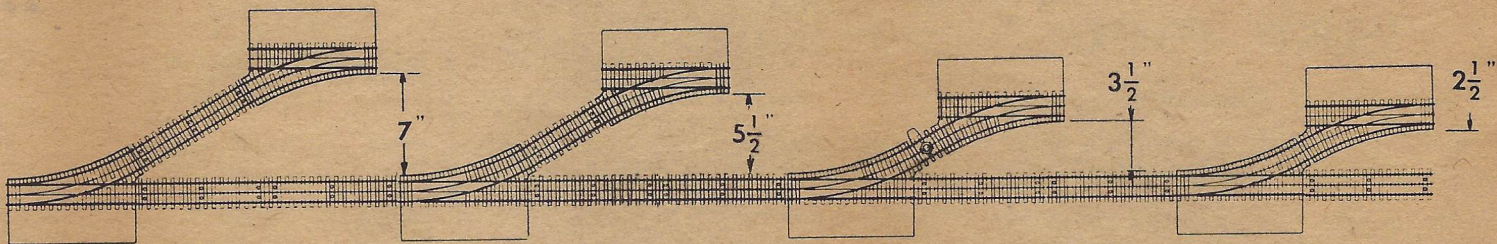

To provide sufficient clearance for a switch base used as shown above, it is suggested that a No. 34 Half Straight Track or a 3/4" piece of track be inserted.

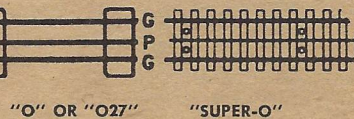

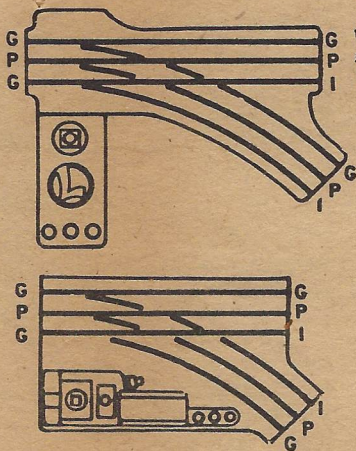

When making a double crossover it is necessary that a 7 1/4" piece of track be inserted between switches as shown.

SPACING FOR PARALLEL CROSSOVERS

When "butting" two right hand or two left hand switches you can vary the distance between parallel tracks by inserting various sections of track between switches.

ADAPTING SUPER "O" TO "O27" AND "O"

For adapting "O27" and "O" track or switches to Super "O", use the transition pieces included in No. 1122-500 "O27" Gauge Adapter Set and No. 022-500 "O" Gauge Adapter Set respectively. (Use transition pins as indicated.)

(G) GROUND PIN

FOR "O" NO. 32-30
FOR "O27" NO. 32-33

(P) POWER PIN

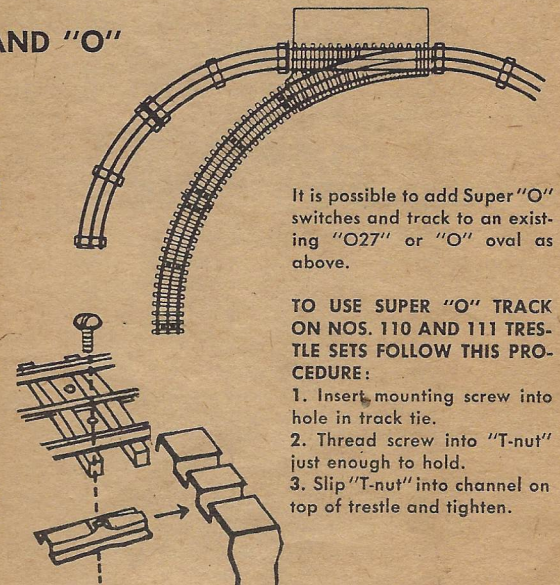

FOR "O" NO. 32-31
FOR "O27" NO. 32-34

(I) INSULATING PIN

FOR "O" NO. 32-32
FOR "O27" NO. 32-25

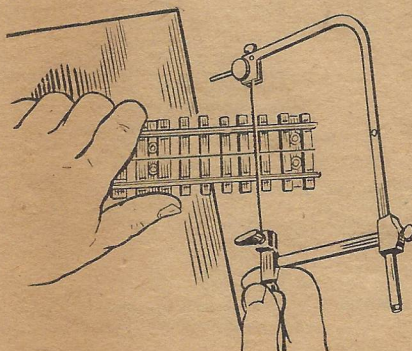

It is possible to add Super "O" switches and track to an existing "O27" or "O" oval as above.

TO USE SUPER "O" TRACK ON NOS. 110 AND 111 TRESTLE SETS FOLLOW THIS PROCEDURE:

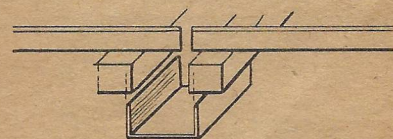

1. Insert mounting screw into hole in track tie.
2. Thread screw into "T-nut" just enough to hold.
3. Slip "T-nut" into channel on top of trestle and tighten.

CUTTING SUPER "O" TRACK

For some layouts it may be necessary to cut a piece of Super "O" track to a specified length. This is done most efficiently with a jeweler's saw using a "spiral" blade. A fine-tooth hack saw blade can also be used.

Cut Super "O" track half-way between track ties (as shown above). Make certain the piece you cut has at least one metal tie to hold the track together. To accommodate the connecting clip, file about 1/32" from the cut end of the bus bar.

Cut pieces can be held with No. 112-197 Track Clips available from Lionel Service Dept., 28 Sager Place, Irvington 11, N. J. at 5¢ each.
